Candidates Will Speak At Convos

Republican party members will occupy the stage of the Student Union theater Friday morning in the first of two political convocations which Prof. Edmund Freeman, chairman of the University Public Exercises committee, hopes will "stimulate thought on the election."

Friday's convocation will present W. R. (Barney) Rankin, Republican candidate for congress, and James Annin, Columbus, secretary of the state Republican central committee. A pep rally for the Grizzly-Bobcat game Saturday is on the program.

"Our committee thought it would be a good idea to have political convocations, inasmuch as many of the students are of voting age and are presumably interested in the November election," Professor Freeman explained.

"We had hoped to have repre-

Vet Representative Resumes Visits

B. T. Brudevold, Missoula contact representative for the Veterans administration, will resume his bi-weekly visits on Nov. 26, Norman S. Murray, training officer, announced yesterday.

Until that date veterans can take their claims to the VA, Duncan block, 240 Higgins avenue.

Mr. Brudevold will assist any veteran who wishes information about insurance claims, hospitalization, out-patient medical and dental treatment, GI loans, compensations, or pensions.

Mountaineer Deadline Will Be November 5

Deadline for manuscripts for the fall quarter Mountaineer has been set at Nov. 5, according to Margie Karlin, Missoula, editor.

"I want to correct the false impression that Mountaineer is an English department publication," Miss Karlin said. "It is an all-school publication, and anyone is eligible to contribute material. We would like all writers on the campus to submit manuscripts."

First SOS Is Tonight

The first SOS of the college year is tonight at 7:30 on Main hall steps, Chippo Golder, Missoula, Traditions Board chairman, announced today.

"Singing On the Steps" is one of the finest and oldest traditions that we have here on the university campus," said Golder.

Singing will be led by Professor John Lester of the School of Music. A short pep rally for the Grizzly-Bobcat game is scheduled and cheering is to be led by the university yell team.

When the clock in Main hall rings 8 p.m. Professor Lester will lead the group in singing "College Chums." After the first chorus students will leave the scene humming the song.

Bear Paws To Supervise Butte Ushering

The Bear Paws, sophomore men's honorary, will supervise student section ushering at the Bobcat game in Butte on Saturday, said Chief Grizzly Dick Miller, Butte, today.

In explaining the role of this organization in the Butte celebration, Miller stated that while the major part of the ushering will be done by the Butte American Legion post No. 1, supervision of the student section will be directed by members of the Bear Paw chapter.

A new seating arrangement to handle the expected large crowd has been worked out by the stadium committee of the Butte Chamber of Commerce, which is in charge of the game. In previous years the student section has been roped off, and by presentation of an activity card a student could sit anywhere in the section.

This year special seats have been reserved, thus requiring an extra force of ushers.

Bear Paw members will be assisted at the MSU-MSC student mixer after the game at the Masonic Temple ballroom in Butte. This dance is being sponsored by the joint Butte alumni groups of the two schools.

Freshmen Will Ballot For Class Officers Oct. 30

The freshman election will be Wednesday, Oct. 30, and petitions for candidates must be filed by Saturday noon, Oct. 26, Central Board decided Tuesday.

Voting will be done by the Australian ballot system as provided for under Article VII, Section 4, of ASMSU's revised constitution.

Those on the special election committee are: Don Kern, Livingston; Mary Morrow, Oak Park, Ill.; Jo Ann Blair, Missoula, and Peg Hanley, Helena.

Candidates' petitions for the offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and a representative to Central Board, will be available in Ann Reese Anderson's office in the Student Union.

Central Board, after hearing petitions for appropriations from the band, orchestra, and a capella choir, requested a revised budget from the budgeting committee. The revised budget will be based on the present enrollment.

The band asked for $249 to cover

Committee Plans Full Schedule for Alumni Homecoming Celebration

A committee of Missoula alumni has completed plans for a full schedule for the alumni who will converge on the campus from all over the country for the 50th anniversary Homecoming celebration on Oct. 25 and 26.

Health Service Pays Only Authorized Bills

"Bills of students who do not call the health service for authorization to go to a local doctor or hospital will not be paid by the health service," says Nurse Ella Campbell.

The health service is now open 24 hours a day in order to receive all calls. Calls after 5 p.m. may be made by calling 7626 or through the university switchboard until 11 p.m.

"We hope to have a full-time doctor by November," Miss Campbell said.

Dorms Full To Capacity

Approximately 900 students are being housed by the university's dormitory system, Mrs. Monica Swearingen, director of residence halls, said today.

Of that number, 230 are living in New hall; 170 in North; 140 in Corbin; 200 in South, and 160 students, to be given rooms in Jumbo hall, are being temporarily quartered in the men and women's gymnasiums.

An additional 140 students, also assigned to Jumbo hall, are being housed in private homes in Missoula.

To accommodate this number, room assignments in New hall, dormitory for upperclass women, were doubled, with four girls being assigned to rooms that normally serve two. In North hall, freshman girls' dormitory, three girls have been assigned to each double room.

Similar doubling up in Corbin and North halls has men students billeted three to all double rooms, and two to each single room.

Three dining halls, Mrs. Swearingen (please see page four)

A tour of the campus from 1 to 4:30 on Friday, Oct. 25, will open the program. From 6:30 to 8:30 fraternity and sorority houses will have open houses and buffet suppers, and a reception for alumni in the Student Union lounge is planned from 7 to 8:30.

From 8:30 to 9:30 the alumni will join with the students in school songs and yells around a bonfire back of the Student Union. A dance in the Student Union and a convocation for the alumni are scheduled for 9:30. Members of the football squad will be presented and candidates for Homecoming queen will be introduced.

On Saturday morning an old-time parade will move through the streets of Missoula from 10 to 11 o'clock with the candidates for Homecoming queen and their attendants to parade on floats sponsored by local merchants.

A lunch for the alumni in the Student Union will precede the big event of the week end, the Grizzly-Utah State football game at 2 p.m. Following the game there will be a reception for the alumni.

The Missoula alumni, hosts for the celebration, predicted that this homecoming will be the largest in university history. Space allotments for the homecomers in local hotels are almost all reserved, they said, and the advance registrations include delegations from large cities on both coasts and members of the first class to graduate from the university.

Independents Will Sponsor Mixer Friday

An all-school mixer will be sponsored by the Organized Independent students Friday night in the Gold room of the Student Union, the executive council of OIS announced.

George Gray, Forsyth, and Paul Williamson, Missoula, were named by the council to make plans for the mixer.

David Lane, Deer Lodge, was asked by the council to continue as chairman of the organization, pending election of a president.

Lane and Williamson were also asked to head a Homecoming float committee.

Nine additional members to the executive council were appointed Friday. New members are listed below:

Robert Leamer, Pensacola, Fla.; Warren Mead, Manhattan; Ann Bukvich, Butte; George Gray, Forsyth; Isabel McRae, Terry; Dorothy Kirschner, Townsend; Daniel Keel, Thompson Falls; Wallace Chapin, New York City, and Edith Dresner, Yonkers, N. Y.

Appointment of the nine was in line with a recent OIS constitutional amendment allowing an increase of the executive council to 15 members.

More and More—We Pay and Pay

Notes of a musical nature were flying back and forth in the Eloise Knowles room Tuesday afternoon as Central Board found itself visited by representatives of the band, orchestra and a capella choir, each requesting appropriations, all very legitimate, for the furtherance of their respective organizations.

We say that each request is legitimate, but let us modify that statement somewhat. The a capella choir's request for $950 to purchase 60 chorus robes, for example, is perfectly fine and justified—but is it the ASMSU's job to furnish these robes? Isn't it, rather, the duty of the university, through the music department, to furnish robes for this group?

And what about instruments for the band and orchestra? French horns, bassoons, and oboes are especially needed; none have been available for several years. Band director J. Austin Gray aptly described the present horns as being "patched with solder and chewing gum." But is it up to the ASMSU to furnish these instruments? Isn't credit given for musical courses in which these instruments are used? Therefore, isn't it the university's duty to buy this badly-needed equipment?

For some time now there has been an apparent tendency for more and more university expenses to be pawned off onto Central Board and the ASMSU—that's us—not only in music but in other fields as well.

Where's it going to end?

It will end only when the university and ASMSU officials can get together and decide for once and for all which functions and groups are part of the university and should be financed as such and which are part of our student association. We hope that day will come soon.

Little Did I Know

A SERIAL STORY BY JOHN F. BRUNETT

(In the preceding installments: While the hero and his adviser, Doctor Mike Robe, chatting idly over the curious lack of grade points on last quarter's record, the kindly old doctor discovers that two pet bacteria have been abducted. Since the doctor had raised the two waifs from infancy, he was, naturally enough, overcome with sorrow. The hitherto brilliant conversation disintegrated, along with the plot.)

CHAPTER IV

I knew that the poor doctor was deeply shaken. Wringing his hands, he hurried to the sideboard and took some brandy. Immediately I began to feel shaken.

The problem of the missing bacteria had become serious beyond mere seriousness and was now serious! I set myself to solve the devilish enigma.

Placing my chin upon clenched fist and leaning forward at the proper angle, I asked myself some pertinent questions.

"Just what," I asked myself, "is the condition of my blood?"

"If so, who abducted the two bacteria, Boothococcus Petetroff?" Like a steel spring I leaped into the air and landed at the side of the doctor.

"Doctor Robe, professor of bacteriology, chairman of the Board of Boards, champion of down-trodden bacteria, sir, I have found the nub of our problem. The nub is," I announced in a rumbling baritone, "find the person who took the missing bacteria!"

Doctor Robe was overjoyed. He slammed his fist down upon his desk.

"Precisely, precisely, precisely,"

he said in crisp tones.

Exuding confidence in a manner which I have often found in the Fuller Brush man, I clapped the doctor's back.

"With your permission, sir, I shall conduct the investigation and, if need be, track the despicable culprit to the very ends of the earth," I said, thinking cunningly of last quarter's grades.

The doctor exuded gratitude. "Thank you, my boy," he sighed. "Your offer is indeed touching, for seldom have I exuded such gratitude. Carry on."

A quick smile flickered across my face and was lost in the shadows at the far corner of the room. Whipping from my pocket a magnifying glass, I clicked my heels and bowed low from the waist.

"At your service, sir," I said efficiently. "Leave everything to me."

I stroked my beard thoughtfully.

"And, now," I asked, "whom do you suspect?" "I hardly dare to think it," the doctor began hesitantly, "but, as you know, a co-ed is sitting in my outer office. On the surface of it, there is nothing suspicious in that. Yet, she has been out there for several weeks."

"When I go home at night, I see her hovering in the shadows near the file cabinet. It does seem a little strange—but no, she

Robnett Speaks to the Press

Robnett Talks On Change In America

"The FBI," said George W. Robnett, head of the National Laymen's council, Monday night, "has information on every Communist and Communist sympathizer in this country."

Robnett's talk on "How Communism Works in America" was sponsored by Constitution Defenders, a Missoula organization, in the Student Union theater.

Most of Robnett's speech was devoted to explaining the history of leftist organizations. His main point was a description of what he called "innocent-appearing fronts."

"What we need today," he said, "are men and women with a background that will demonstrate that they are four square behind the old fashioned American way of life."

In reply to questions put to him before and after his speech by Kaimin reporters, Robnett referred to "Under Cover," a book by John Roy Carlson which traced the development before World War II of various nationalistic groups.

"My lawyers," said Robnett, "are filing suits against Carlson's publishers. We have already been granted two libel verdicts in a Chicago court."

The book, published by E. P. Dutton and Co. of New York in 1943, attributed anti-Semitic sentiments to Robnett, and tried to connect him with nationalistic organizations.

Convocation Is In Gay Ninety Style

Homecoming convocation Oct. 25 will be presented in a Gay Nineties style, Julius Wuerthner, Great Falls, Homecoming convocation chairman, announced Tuesday.

Numbers on the regular program, said Wuerthner, will be taken from a larger production planned that evening for alumni only.

The Missoula Lions' club quartet, fifth place winner among all such groups in International Lions' clubs competition, will appear on the program.

A can-can number by members of the Womens' Athletic association, vocal selections by the Kappa Alpha Theta sextet, a five-minute skit by the Masquers club, and a Gay Nineties bathing beauty parade involving Homecoming queen candidates are also included on the program.

couldn't have."

I straightened myself up to my full height and set my mouth in a firm line.

"Doctor," I said, "we must be firm. Show her in."

Little did I know.

Ex-Students Approved for Scholarships

Dean Miller Outlines Method of Selection For Rhodes Scholars

"Lt. Col. Edward G. Cook, ex-'37, Missoula, and Lt. Comdr. Wilbert K. Carter, ex-'37, Greycliff, have been approved for war service scholarships under the Rhodes scholarship plan by the local committee," chairman J. Earl Miller announced yesterday.

"Cook attended Columbia university and graduated from West Point, after leaving MSU," Miller said.

"Applications for all Rhodes scholarships must be given to R. J. Thomas, secretary of the state committee, P.O. box 1338, Butte, by Nov. 1," stated Miller.

"It is the plan of the local committee to interview candidates Oct. 23 or 24," said Dean Miller. He advised that all candidates should provide themselves with birth certificates, which are required and may be hard to obtain.

Applicants approved by the local committee will go to Butte at their own expense where they will be further interviewed by the state committee.

Three boys will be chosen by this committee from all of the applicants from the state to go to Spokane, expenses paid, where they will be interviewed by the district committee.

Montana is in the eighth district which includes Washington, Idaho, Oregon, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

Six men, four Rhodes scholarships and two war service scholarships, will be chosen by the district committee from the 18 applicants sent by the six states as winners of the scholarships.

W. P. Clark, Edmund L. Freeman, Richard H. Jesse, Charles F. Hertler, and Miller are the members of the local committee.

"The Veterans Administration will pay college and university fees for educational purposes up to $500 for the normal academic year, in addition to the $2,000 received from the Rhodes scholarship," Miller said.

Bobcats Train Seriously, Aim for Victory Over Grizzlies Saturday

Montana State Bobcats will aim for their first Grizzly win since 1932 at Butte next Saturday, and they have set their sights high.

Reports from Gatten field, Bozeman, indicate that the Bobcats have settled down to determined practices which have featured stiff scrimmages and long practice sessions, dealing with ball handling and blocking, most needed essentials in the intricate T-formation.

Bobcats' Record

Although Coach Clyde Carpenter had only a few returning lettermen to work with at the season's first practice sessions, he groomed his proteges into a formidable club. The Cats have played three games, winning from Brigham Young university 13 to 12, breaking even with Colorado college 7 to 7, and losing to Utah State 28 to 14 in the last quarter of a hard-fought game.

During each tussle the States showed power and exhibited good down field blocking, which Coach Carpenter stresses as most important.

Fumbles Prove Costly

Probably one of the Bobcats' weakest points is ball handling off the T-formation. Fumbles have caused the team to lose numerous opportunities to score as statistics point out.

The Montana State line has sparked this season with the fine play of Tackle Len Larson and Guard Dick Ball, both from Great Falls. George Rumberger, who snared a touchdown pass in the Colorado game, has filled Jack Moyle's shoes at one of the end positions. Moyle is out for the remainder of the season with a broken arm. Jack Davis, Billings, has been outstanding at guard.

Brooks Is Key Man

At the backfield posts, rugged Red Brooks, Livingston, has proved to be the key man in offensive drives. In addition to backing up the line, he scored the two touchdowns in the BYU game that meant victory for the Cats.

Bud Seelinger, Great Falls, is the ace passer for Carpenter's crew, and backs Bill Nelson, Bozeman, Jim O'Loughlin, Missoula, and Gene Miles, Anaconda, have displayed speed, drive, and ability during the three previous contests.

Carpenter seems to be as well fortified with reserve talent as is Fessenden. Gene Bourdet, Cliff Frisman, Dave Smith, and "Rabbitfoot" Marshall are capable backfield men. Included in Bobcat line reserves is Tony Degel, 256 pound, 18-year-old tackle.

Grizzlies Rated Stronger

The Grizzlies, smarting from the 34-to-0 shellacking at the hands of Oregon, are nevertheless rated above the Bobcats statistically in yardage gained in three games. Pass defense of both clubs has been weak. The backfields appear to be evenly matched in ability but the Grizzly line is rated stronger.

Coach Carpenter, who can draw reserves from three experienced teams, will probably start the following lineup against the Grizzlies Saturday:

LE	Rumberger
LT	McLelland
LG	Ball
C	Masten
RG	Davis
RT	Larson
RE	Perrigo or Clawson
QB	Seelinger
LH	Nelson
RH	Miles or O'Loughlin
FB	Brooks

Grizzly Cubs, Dillon Bulldogs Clash Friday

Junior varsity coach John Dratz will take 28 players to Dillon for Friday's JayVee-Dillon Normal game. The Montana State Bobkittens defeated Dillon earlier this year 34-0. Dillon Bulldog coach, Straugh, uses a single wing attack and JayVee Coach Dratz said they have a strong passing attack.

Men making the trip are: Gjeffe and Kelly, centers; Llewellyn, Gilchrist, Taylor, Nesbit, Sugg, and DeVore, guards; Thane, Leaphart, Gullickson, Fellows, Hill, and Cunningham, tackles; Moore, Delaney, O'Neil, Grow, Collins, and Korn, ends; Smith, Martin, Jourdonnais, and King, halfbacks; Hamnerness, Graham, and Leutjen, fullbacks; Andrus and Bellusci, quarterbacks.

Wyman Andrus will act as game captain for the night game.

MSU heads for a "bewitched, bothered, and bewhiskered" Homecoming.

Helen Daigle Appointed Newman Club Prexy

Helen Daigle, Alberton, succeeded John Manix, Augusta, as president of the Newman club when 200 university students met Sunday morning in the parish hall of St. Anthony's church.

Larry Casey, Helena, was selected to fill the office of vice-president vacated by Miss Daigle. Other club officers are Nick Kabalin, Helena, secretary, and Joe Grass, Bismarck, N. D., treasurer.

The club will meet again the first Sunday in November, Miss Daigle announced. In the meantime committees are being selected to take care of the social and administrative activities.

Assistant Managers For Basketball Named

Basketball Manager Vin Corwin today announced appointments of four men as basketball managers.

The new assistants are Hank DiRe, Anaconda; Fred Balsam, Billings; Claude Roney, Missoula, and Ernie Johnson, Paradise.

ROD BELCHER DEPARTS

Rod Belcher, news editor of KGOV and MSU student, will leave Friday for Tacoma, Wash., where he will be the sports announcer for station KMO. In his new position, Belcher will announce all home games for two colleges, three high schools, and the professional football team, the Tacoma Indians.

STORE WILL CLOSE

The Student Union store will be closed this Saturday because of the Grizzly-Bobcat game in Butte, Jack Cuthbert, manager, announced today. Students who are not going to Butte and who usually eat there will have to make other arrangements for that day.

Ski Club Plans Runs, Orders Skis

Plans for further work on the Diamond ski run, ordering of skis for club members, and the report of work done on the run last Sunday were the topics of discussion at the University Ski club meeting in the Bitterroot room Tuesday night.

Pres. Bill Tremper, Missoula, told members that much was accomplished by volunteer work parties Sunday. Two ski runs and one tow path were cleared of brush, small timber, and rocks, he said. The warm-up shack was also moved to a better location.

Twenty-six potential skiers made the trip. Work this Sunday will be cancelled because of the Butte game, but will be resumed the following Sunday.

"The main work of club members at the present time should be to recruit new members," Tremper said. "All those who are interested should join whether or not they can ski or have skis at the present time."

"The club has approximately 25 pairs ordered for this purpose. Instructors will be on hand to teach beginners," he said.

Membership fee will be $3 for the season. This will entitle the skier to half fare rates on the tow at Diamond mountain, a club emblem, dances, and also the special trips to Gibbons pass and Look-out pass, Ida.

Record Number Report for Swim Practice Monday

Swimming Coach Bob Oswald expressed optimism for the swimming season after a record turnout of 45 men reported for practice at the university pool Monday.

Oswald feels that the size of the pool is insufficient to provide adequate conditioning for this number. As a result, the first cut will be earlier than originally planned so that those qualified will have plenty of time and instruction before their first competition. He plans an ultimate team of 15 with a traveling squad of 10.

"In previous years," Oswald stated, "four or five men have had to swim all the events and dive as well. This year there appears to be sufficient talent so that each swimmer may specialize in his best event."

sentatives from the two major parties at one convocation," he went on, "but as that was impossible to arrange, we will present the Democratic speakers Nov. 1.

"As far as I know, political convocations have not been presented here before this year."

The convocation Nov. 1 will include talks by Leif Erickson, nominee for United States senator, and probably Michael J. Mansfield, candidate for representative.

Professor Freeman stated that the convocation dates were offered to the central committees of the two parties and that the choice of speakers was left to each group.

J. Austin Gray Directs Band

In the absence of Clarence W. Bell, J. Austin Gray has assumed the post of band director at MSU this quarter. In the event of Mr. Bell's return, Mr. Gray will remain as assistant director.

In 1942 Mr. Gray received his bachelor of music degree at the University of Michigan. After teaching music for two years in a high school in Charlevoix, Mich., he attended the Eastman School of Music for his master's degree, which he received in 1945.

On graduating from the Eastman school, he was given the post of band director and assistant music professor at Ohio State University. Mr. Gray's next stop was MSU, where he directs the band, gives instruction in theory and lessons to students who are woodwind instrumentalists.

J. AUSTIN GRAY

Although Mr. Gray is a specialist in woodwinds, his major instrument being the clarinet, he is well acquainted with all of the instruments comprising a band and symphony orchestra. His technical mastery of the strings was exemplified by his having played cello in the Eastman school's symphony orchestra.

Mr. Gray feels that the band members would get considerable morale boosting if they were convinced that support is forthcoming from the student body. Both praise and criticism would be appreciated.

NEW STUDENTS GET HANDBOOKS

All freshmen and transfer students who have not received their handbooks will be notified by the registrar's office when the handbooks are ready, Mrs. Emma Lomasson announced yesterday.

She urged that students not call at the registrar's office for handbooks until such notification is made.

Lunches Offered In Copper Room From 11:30 to 1:30

Lunches consisting of sandwiches, ice cream, milk, and coffee are being offered daily in the Copper room from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Jack Cuthbert, fountain manager, announced.

During noon hour, when the dining room is too crowded, students are asked to go to the Copper room where they will be served immediately.

"At the present time," Cuthbert said, "we are serving over 500 students every noon and are not equipped to take care of all of them satisfactorily."

The Student Union store will be unable to serve any more coke during the morning hour, Cuthbert said.

"We are forced to do this because our quota is only four gallons a day, although we could use ten very easily. With this new system we will be able to serve three gallons in the afternoon and one at night," he said.

Coffee, milkshakes, and rolls will still be offered as usual in the morning according to Cuthbert.

Evening hours for the fountain are from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. four nights a week, and on weekends until 12 p.m. when there is a University function such as a mixer, play, or game.

Students Organize Fellowship Group

A Students' Christian Fellowship group has been organized at the University Congregational church on University avenue, according to the Rev. Guy L. Barnes, pastor of the church.

Different denominations are represented, and the group meets every Sunday at 5 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Barnes said that interesting and worthwhile activities are planned and all interested students are invited to the meetings.

Los Gringos, Spanish club, met last night in the Bitterroot room. Miss Thora Sorenson, instructor of Spanish, highlighted the evening's entertainment with a talk on Mexico. Election of officers will take place at a future meeting of the club.
